Immaculee Ilibagiza who is a Rwandan Genocide Survivor and NEW YORK TIMES best-selling Author will be speaking Tuesday, February 26, 2019 at Saint Andrew Apostle in Silver Spring, MD. For three terrifying months during the horrific 1994 Tutsi genocide in Rwanda, Immaculee and seven other women hid for their lives in the tiny, secret bathroom of a local pastor. Amidst the ordeal, Immaculee discovered the power of prayer especially the Rosary and a profound and lasting relationship with God, which enabled her to seek out and forgive even her family's killers. She now remains devoted to sharing the importance of faith, understanding, unconditional forgiveness and the message of Our Lady Kebiho especially as a devotion to the Sorrowful Mother. Admission is $10 in advance ($15 at the door) to help defray Immaculee's travel expenses. Register now at:
